I have no home for my little daughter, aged four years. I will give her to any respectable person who will provide a good home for her.
References required. C. A. PEASE, Wolcott.

I have moved my Machine Shop into the Noyes building on River St., where I am prepared to build new or repair anything in the machinery line. I offer my 6 horse-power engine and upright steel boiler for sale at a bargain. F. H. BLANCHARD.

Auction—Mrs. D. L. Eaton will sell at public auction at her house in Morrisville on Saturday, October 13, at 10 o'clock, forenoon, her entire lot of household goods, consisting of furniture, stoves, carpets, bedding, crockery, glassware, etc. Sale positive.
H. C. LANPHER, Auctioneer.
Morrisville, Vt., Oct. 10, 1894.

Auction—At Cambridge, Vt., Wednesday, Oct. 24, 1894, at 1 p. m., the administrator will sell at auction to the highest bidder the two fine farms and the large number of farming and dairy tools and other property belonging to the estate of Clara D. Gates.
C. D. GATES, Administrator.
Cambridge, Vt., Oct. 3, 1894.

I am offering my house for sale at a very low price; would be glad to get half pay down but could not let the pay go on time if security be made satisfactory. Stoves and carpets will be sold with house if wanted. I also have to dispose of 1 nearly new open wagon, 1 new top buggy, 2 light harnesses, one new set all at low prices. E. E. FOSTER.
Morrisville, Sept. 26.

KIRBY, the Paper Hanger, is in town to 30 days and will be prepared to take orders for papering and can furnish a full line from the cheapest to the finest grades, including embossed gills, Feltings, Ingrains, Linerusts Waltons and in fact all the latest fads in paper. Contracts for finishing the interior of new residences in natural wood and all modern finish at bottom prices. Also steel ceilings and all decoration in steel. Have also a supply of steel roofing to dispose of.
Fine work and select stock. Orders left at The Randall will receive prompt attention.
W. C. KIRBY.

FOR SALE—Having been elected an Agent to sell and deed the Bugbee Farm, so called, on the road from Morrisville to Wolcott, at present the property of the Village of Morrisville, I now offer the Farm, Stock and Tools for sale, and give immediate possession, with certain reservations to be made for said Village Corporation. Buildings in good repair, water in house and barn, 186 acres of land, large meadow, on a fine road in sight of Railroad, 3 miles from Church, Post-office and passenger station, in a good neighborhood.
Come early if you want to buy.
G. W. DOTY, Agent.
46

FOR SALE, A DESIRABLE 80-ACRE FARM—1 mile for sale my farm, situated about 1/2 mile from Morrisville, consisting of about 80 acres, suitably divided into tillage, pasture and timberland, with 900 or more good sugar acres thereon, with good buildings. Located just outside of the limits of the incorporation of Morrisville, on a good road. I will sell in 10, 18, 22 and 30 acre pieces to suit the purchaser, or all together, with or without the stock and tools. This is a very desirable place and is under a high state of cultivation, within about 1/2 mile of one of the best schools in Vermont, handy to post-office, stores and churches, and within sight of the growing and thriving village of Morrisville. Call on or address A. A. NILES, Morrisville, Vt.

PAYMENT IN ADVANCE.

Beginning January 1, 1895, the NEWS AND CITIZEN will adopt the advance pay rule. After that date, no paper will be sent to anybody unless it is paid for. We shall say more upon this subject before the year is closed. Look at the label on your paper and see how you stand.

Grand Lodge of Good Templars, of which he is auditor.

The work upon the interior of the Universalist Church is nearly completed and services will again be held there at the usual hour next Sunday.

The domestic bakery in the town clerk's building has again changed hands, Edwin Spiller having sold out his interest in the business to G. L.
Darling.

G. W. Doty has been appointed an aide on the staff of Gov. Woodbury.
This is a good selection, and with the "Colonel's" many friends we extend congratulations.

The oyster supper given by the gentlemen at the Methodist vestry last Friday evening, drew a fair attendance, considering the weather, and was an enjoyable affair.

Sneak thieves have relieved Frank Thomas of the necessity of taking care of about 100 pounds of pork. It was taken from his cellar last week, the barrel only being left.

Delegates from here will attend the annual Lamoille Co. Sunday-school convention at Johnson Friday and Saturday of this week, and the State convention at St. Albans next week.

Mrs. Olive C. George, widow of the late William George, died at her home on Winter street, Monday morning, aged 87 years. The funeral was held from the house this afternoon at one o'clock, Rev. Dr. Booth officiating.

What with putting in a new water works system and installing an electric light plant these are hurrying times for Morrisville. But Morrisville is a hustling town and it takes quite a procession to keep up with her.—Swanton Courier.

The pulpit at the Cong'l church was supplied Sunday morning and evening by Rev. Daniel W. Hardy of Billerica, Mass., who presented interesting discourses. Mr. Hardy is here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Munson, and his mother, Mrs. Hardy.

The Senior class at the Academy has engaged the Phila May Concert Company to give a concert here Saturday evening, Oct. 20th. The company has appeared here before and will need no introduction or words of recommendation to Morrisville people.

The birthday party given by Master Arthur Waite last Thursday eve, was largely attended by his young friends. Refreshments were served and a pleasant social evening was enjoyed. He was the recipient of several presents, as a token of their friendship.

Carrier has something to say this week in regard to cloaks, capes and jackets, and gives the dates for his grand opening. Next week he will present one of the mammoth advertisements usually given to announce this event. Look at Currier's stock, by all means.

Rev. Dr. Booth was called to Northfield last Friday to officiate at a funeral. The same day two other calls of a similar character came to him.
For a number of years the doctor has averaged over 100 funerals a year, with weddings pretty well up to the same figure.

The Topeka Mail of a recent issue says: "The directors of the Ros-sville State bank, of which E. B. Merriam, the Topeka capitalist, is president, held a meeting last week and found the affairs of the bank in remarkably good condition. The deposits have more than doubled in the last year."

Judge Powers will very likely make some speeches for the Republican candidates in Ohio, at the request of the Ohio State committee, and if he does, the natives will hear some excellent doctrine most lucidly and concisely spoken. No soaring or flapdoodle, but plain, clean business.— Hardwick Gazette.

In connection with the water works matters have gone ahead finely. The rainy weather of last week hindered the work slightly, but a large amount of ditching and pipe laying has been done. The river has been crossed with the pipe and the only trouble to be encountered now will be the non-arrival of material.

Mrs. A. M. Churchill has been confined to the house for a week or more with very painful bruises received in a carriage accident. She was driving into Pleasant View Cemetery at the Eastern entrance, when the step of the carriage, which was a low, two-seated vehicle, caught on the center post to which the gates fasten. The carriage was stopped so suddenly that the horse broke loose and went on and Mrs. Churchill was thrown violently forward to the ground between the shaft of the carriage.

As was hinted last week, the gentlemen of the Cong'l society are to serve a chicken pie supper at the Cong'l church vestry Friday evening of this week, the feast opening at 6 o'clock, with tables spread for as many as the room will hold. A very large and brilliant corps of waiters, decorators, carvers, cooks, pourers, etc., have been engaged for the occasion. All poultry entered for this event will be guaranteed under five years of age, free from spot or blemish and with a pedigree to suit the most fastidious.
Keep an eye out for small bills with a first-class specimen of the electro-typist's art, made exclusively for this occasion. The committee request that all donations of food of any kind, silver ware, etc., be sent to the vestry by four o'clock Friday afternoon.

One of our former village boys, Fred Utton, is still in the employ of George L. Clark of Meriden, Conn., where he has been several years. We are glad to see he is proving a success in his chosen calling, as will be seen by the following, clipped from a Connecticut paper:

George L. Clark's Huster won first money both days at the Windsor fair this week. He was started in eight races within the last 23 days, taking first money in seven and second in the other, winning in purses $750. Fred Utton, his driver, is winning many commendations for his splendid handling of the horse.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS ARRESTED.

Considerable excitement was aroun-ed here Thursday by the arrest of two fellows who could not give a very straight account of themselves and were evidently "dead broke," and attempting to beat their way through the country by jumping board bills.
They arrived at Mr. Bolac's hotel at eight o'clock Wednesday night, without any sign of baggage of any description, and registered as W. H.
Beels and J. W. Fuller of Burlington.
In the morning they were recognized by, and they also recognized, a cigar salesman who was there over night, and who saw in them two gents who had skipped a hotel bill at Danville and Cabot, they having registered at the latter place as E. W. Lane and J. W. Bean of Burlington. As soon as the cigar salesman went into the dining room, these two gents asked in regard to the express office and passed out. When informed of their past history Mr. Bolac took his team, got Officer Geo. Town and started out, after finding that they had not appeared at the express office, and fortunately started in the right direction, overtaking the pedestrians on the road toward Cady's Falls. They were gathered in by Officer Town and housed in the incorporation "rat-trap," and seemed to take quite a cheerful view of their situation. It was found that one of the two answered the description of one of the post-office thieves who have operated in the State, a description having been sent out by District Attorney Senter. It was also learned that these men were seen in company with another man and a woman at East Hardwick a little before, and as a woman had figured in the same descriptive circular, there seemed to be reasonable suspicion attached to the parties here. District Attorney Senter ordered Officer Town to take the men to Rutland, which he did Friday morning. They can give no satisfactory account of themselves and in fact will talk but very little, and are still held with the belief that they are larger game than board jumpers.

HYDE PARK.

Pay your taxes.
Thanks to Stenographer Stratton for some of his fine celery.

A. J. Sackett went to Boston Monday for a few days' outing.

Miss Agnes Lewis of New York City is visiting relatives in this place.

Edw. Stevens is assisting in the electric light wiring at Morrisville.

Advertised letters—Chas. Dunton, Edson A. Ranney, Mrs. Olive Smith.

Joseph S. Waite of this place is made happy by an increase of pension.

Mrs. Deming of Nashua, N. H., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. M.
Strong.

Mrs. E. White of Waddington, N.
Y., is visiting her daughter, Mrs.
Robt. Shaver.

Crane has a new advt. this week.
Read it and then give him a call, a he will be sure to please you.

Mrs. W. H. H. Kenfield was quite unexpectedly called back to Shirley, Mass., and left for that place last Monday.

Read Strong & Wood's new advt.
this week. Their fall and winter stock is in, and they have something you want.

Jacob Foster arrived from Philadelphia Monday. Mr. Foster will make his home here this winter with Erl Ellinwood.

J. H. Rice of the firm of Rice & Co., the seed men, of Cambridge, N. Y., with his wife, was registered at the Phoenix recently.

Mrs. L. L. Dwinell, widow of the late Arch. Dwinell, and Mrs. A. A.
Williams of Lynn, Mass., were in town the first of the week.

A. B. Noyes & Co. of St. Johnsbury have the contract for plumbing C. A.
Knight's residence, and a quartette of artists are now at work on the job.

Rev. F. C. Taylor was unable to occupy his pulpit Sunday last, owing to ill health. The vacancy was filled by Rev. Mr. Rockwood of Jeffersonville.

Directors of Lamoille County National Bank held their regular monthly meeting Thursday last.
The same with the Savings Bank and Warehouse Co.

C. R. Page was confined to the house for several days the past week with a congested lung, which for a time looked serious. He is now in his usual good health.

In addition to the regular delegates, there will doubtless be a large representation from the Sunday school in this place to the county convention at Johnson this week.

Rollin Roddy left last Saturday for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he is to enter Eastman's Business College.
He was joined en route by Ernest Copp, who will enter the same institution. Both are bright, energetic boys and will doubtless do well.

Miss Cleora Crowell attended the State convention of the King's Sons and Daughters at Burlington this week as delegate from the Silver Cross Society of that order here.
Miss Rosalie Beecher and Miss Belle Havens also attended the convention.

Remember the Phila May Concert occurs Tuesday eve, the 23d. This company is its own recommend. The entertainment will be strictly first-class in all respects. Hear them, give yourself an evening's enjoyment and help give the church a coat of new paint. Tickets on sale at Foss'.

If there is to be a lecture course here this season it is high time a movement in that direction is made.
This is a matter in which every one should take an active interest, as a good lecture course is not only of merit as an educator, but is also an advertisement of the enterprise of a town.

Representative Davis was at home from Montpelier over Sunday. Amos is apparently pleased with his job, and looks as if legislative life agreed with him. He is located at the Montpelier House, among a multitude of good Republicans. He is on the important Grand List Committee and will see that the quadrennial appraisal for this town, which was so badly bungled by our board of list-ers, is made legal before it goes into effect next year.

We clip the following from an Antwerp, Belgium, letter in last week's Shoe & Leather Reporter:—

"Carroll S. Page is sending considerable quantities of calf skins here and to other parts of Europe. Dealers speak highly of his method of selection, which enables them to buy exactly the weights and kinds desired. I have seen one house which imported 20,000 skins from Mr. Page in the past two months, and while I was in the office they called for 4,000 more. This business is new and doubtless susceptible of large increase."

The writer of the above is the special correspondent in Europe of the Reporter, which is one of the leading trade papers in the hide and leather line in the United States.

We have to record this week the death of Samuel Farr, aged 83 years, which occurred at the home of S. K. Vaughn last week Wednesday. Mr. Farr passed the greater portion of his life in this town, having lived here some 60 years. He was a plain, unassuming man, but a good friend and kind neighbor. For the past nearly 28 years his home was with Mr. Vaughn. Mr. Farr retained his mental and physical activity until shortly before his death, but for about two years had been almost wholly blind. He is survived by no near relatives. The funeral services were held Thursday last, Rev. F. C.

Taylor officiating. The remains were interred in the Holbrook cemetery.

Jonathan D. Button, for some thirty years a resident of this town, died at his home in Greenfield Wednesday of last week, after an illness of two weeks of typhoid dysentery.
Mr. Button was born in London, Eng., in 1816. He came to this country when about 25 years old and located in Essex, Vt., where fifty years ago he married Elizabeth Dixon. At the outbreak of the war he enlisted in the navy as a private and served three years, coming home a captain. Soon after his discharge he came to this town and bought the Orra Wiswell farm, where he lived several years, going from there to a farm in the Fred Whitcomb neighborhood. Some ten years ago he bought the place in Greenfield. Mr.
Button was the father of ten children, eight of whom—six boys and two girls—with his wife survive him.
"Uncle Button," as he was familiarly called, was an honest man. He was a hard worker and struggled along patiently and faithfully for those who were dear to him. The funeral took place from the Centre school house last Friday and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Nanton of Morrisville officiated.

C. S. Page sails in the Cunarder "Campania" from New York next week Friday for a few weeks' travel among the calf skin tanners and hide dealers of Europe.

Mr. Page has enjoyed a somewhat extensive patronage from European tanners for several years, but until this season the growth has been quite moderate and gradual, owing to the extreme conservatism of foreigners with reference to buying any class of goods as variable in quality as green calf skins, without first seeing the goods. But they have finally come to understand that under Mr. Page's system of selection and grading the usual risk attending the purchasing of this class of goods is eliminated and it is not an unusual thing now for him to get orders for carloads at a time without any limit as to price or quality, but relying entirely upon Mr. Page's reputation for square dealing. The Governor is exceedingly fortunate in having for a companion traveler Senator Proctor, who goes to secure a much needed rest. Fighting for the cause of Republicanism in the United States Senate during a sultry Washington summer has been a somewhat arduous labor. We have no doubt that this genial pair of Vermont's ex-Governors will enjoy their foreign trip, for they are both "built that way," and we are equally certain that they will carry with them the best wishes of the sons of Vermont for a bon voyage and a safe return.

CENTREVILLE.

Rev. F. C. Taylor will preach here next Sunday at 3 o'clock.
